

The enclosed letter, written by John Postoak, Creek Indian under sentence of death at Fort Smith to Mrs. A. E. W. Robertson. As he had no money ^{even to buy a postage stamp}, the letter remained unmailed for nearly 2 years - the writer having been executed in the mean time - when some one put a stamp on it and sent it to its destination. Postoak was hung Dec 20th, 1878